Description

In this course, you will learn about the procedures for civil suits. Topics to be covered include the scope of a lawsuit, selection of an appropriate forum, presentation of claims and defenses, choice of applicable law, disposition without a trial, and the effect of judgments on future litigation. Other aspects of civil litigation (e.g., discovery, trials, & appeals) are covered in upper-level elective courses. While the course will focus on federal courts, the rules of civil procedure in many states (including North Carolina) are similar.

This course is intended to prepare you for legal practice by developing the knowledge and skill required to recognize and analyze procedural issues in civil litigation, advise clients on those issues and the available options, and draft pleadings and motions.

Course Materials

Required

Civil Procedure: An Open-Source Casebook (v.5.0 2026). Available on the course website: emfink.net/CivPro.

Click & Learn Civil Procedure (Carolina Academic Press). Class Code: 326-138-9849.

Suggested

Kevin M. Clermont, Principles of Civil Procedure (West Academic 7th ed. 2024). Digital version available at no cost through the West Academic Online Study Aids Collection. This hornbook provides concise overviews of the topics covered in the course. Relevant portions for each unit are listed in the Schedule & Assignments section of the syllabus. These are optional, but you may find them helpful to provide context for the assigned reading.

Joseph W. Glannon, Examples & Explanations for Civil Procedure (Aspen 9th ed.) or The Glannon Guide to Civil Procedure (Aspen 5th ed.). These are two popular study aids for Civil Procedure, presenting similar content in different formats.

Policies

Grading

Your final grade for the term will be based on the assigned Click & Learn lessons (20%) and a final exam (80%):

- The Click & Learn assignments are intended to help you review & assess your understanding of the topics covered. The Schedule & Assignments section below lists the corresponding Click & Learn unit for each part of the course.
 - Required lessons within each unit are indicated by a due date of December 7. Click & Learn lessons without a due date are not required and will not count toward your final grade.
 - You may work on the Click & Learn lessons at your own pace and may redo them as many times as you like, as long as you complete them all by December 7. Your grade will be based on your highest score for each lesson.
 - You will receive full credit for the Click & Learn portion of the final grade if you complete all required lessons with an overall average of 90% or greater. Otherwise, this portion of your grade will be based on the percentage of lessons completed and answered correctly.
- The final exam (closed-book/closed-note) will consist of essay and short-answer questions. You will take the final exam at the Law School during the Fall Term exam period (date & time TBA). Sample questions from past exams are posted on the course website.

Consistent with ABA Standard 310, Elon Law School policy requires that “Each credit hour of in-class instructional time must also require at least two additional hours of out-of-class student work.” Completion of the assigned reading and Click & Learn lessons will satisfy this requirement.

Attendance

Elon Law School has adopted the following attendance policy for all courses:

The Law School administers a policy that a student maintain regular and punctual class attendance in all courses in which the student is registered, including externships, clinical courses, or simulation courses. Faculty members will give students written notice of their attendance policies before or during the first week of class. These policies may include, but are not limited to: treating late arrivals, early departures, and/or lack of preparation as absences imposing grade or point reductions for absences, including assigning a failing grade or involuntarily withdrawing a student from the class and any other policies that a professor deems appropriate to create a rigorous and professional classroom environment. In case of illness or emergency, students may contact the Office of Student and Professional Life, which will then notify the student's instructors. A student may notify the faculty member directly of a planned absence and should refer to individual faculty members regarding any policy that may apply. In the case of prolonged illness or incapacity, the student should contact the Office of Student Life.

You should let me know (in advance if feasible) if you are unable to attend class, will arrive late, or must leave early. I do not require an explanation of the reason, nor do I require a doctor's note or other documentation.

Disability Accommodations

For disability accommodation requests, contact the Office of Academic Accommodations and Accessibility.

Honor Code

The Law School honor code applies to all activities related to your law school study, including conduct during class and examinations.
